Carolyn Vermont

Dear Friends,

As we reflect on the accomplishments of the past year, I am filled with gratitude and pride in what we, as a community, have achieved together. It is my privilege to share with you the impact of our collective efforts and the transformative power of building homes, communities, and hope.

In the face of unprecedented challenges, our Habitat for Humanity team and our dedicated supporters have shown resilience, determination, and compassion. Together, we have continued to uphold our mission of providing safe and affordable housing to families in need. The challenges we faced only strengthened our commitment to creating a world where everyone has a decent place to call home.

One of our greatest accomplishments this year was dedicating our 279th Habitat CFC home on Granfield Avenue in Bridgeport, CT! Over the years, we've witnessed the tangible results of our work, as families once burdened by inadequate housing now thrive in the security and stability of their new homes. The smiles on their faces and the stories of renewed hope are testaments to the positive change we bring to individuals, families, and the entire community.

Our volunteers and partners donate their time, talent, and treasures to provide more affordable housing opportunities for low income, working families. By volunteering on a Build Day, shopping at the ReStore, donating to the ReStore, and in so many other ways, you've helped our Habitat homeowners to achieve the opportunity to build strength, stability, and self-reliance. I am thankful that we have so much to celebrate! Together, we are not just building houses; we are building futures, breaking the cycle of poverty, and fostering a sense of belonging for those who have longed for a place to call home.

Looking ahead, the road to ensuring housing for all is still long, but our commitment is stronger than ever. With your continued support, we will persist in our mission, working towards a world where every family has the opportunity for a brighter future.

At Habitat CFC, we put God's love into action by bringing people together to build homes, communities, and hope. Thank you for continuing the journey with us into 2023! Your belief in our vision and your actions have made a lasting impact, and together, we will continue to build homes, communities, and hope.

In partnership,

Carolyn Vermont
Chief Executive Officer

OUR MISSION:

Habitat for Humanity of Coastal Fairfield County seeks to build community and improve lives by partnering with low-income families, community volunteers and donors to build decent and affordable homes in stable and welcoming neighborhoods.

OUR VISION:

We share the vision of a world where everyone has a decent place to live.

What we do:

We build strength, stability, and self-reliance through affordable homeownership.

Why we build:

Families in our community need a decent and affordable place to call home.

How we build:

Volunteers, staff and future homeowners build side-by-side.

How we select homeowners:

- Able to pay an affordable mortgage
- Willingness to complete homeownership classes and sweat equity hours
- In need of affordable and decent housing

How we're funded:

- Sponsorships and grants
- Payments of mortgages
- Donors and family foundations
- Government grants
- Fundraising events
- Payments made by current Habitat CFC homeowners on their 0% interest, zero down-payment mortgages

Habitat CFC has dedicated 279 homes and counting! Here's how you can help:

- Donate: from a full house sponsorship to a bucket of nails, every donation helps us build!
- Volunteer: Swinging a hammer or at our ReStore
- Advocate: Use your voice and spread the word!
- Join a committee: Help us plan our annual Golf Outing, Gala, and support our Family Services Department!

We are proud to be:

a construction company with a green focus. Every Habitat CFC home built since 2010 has been Energy Star rated, saving Habitat homeowners 35-40% on their utility bill.

a family services agency that, for the past 37 years, has been providing support and education as well as helping families purchase their homes and become advocates for their neighborhoods.

a nonprofit financial institution that sells homes below cost with no down-payment and 0% interest mortgages to hardworking families in Fairfield County.

a community service provider for individuals, corporate, faith-based, and community groups who volunteer with us throughout the year.

ReStore

A purveyor of quality used furniture and building materials, keeping tons of materials out of landfills and raising funds to build more homes.

financial snapshot:

Habitat CFC's annual financial statement and IRS Form 990 are compiled and audited by Whittlesey P.C.

The numbers presented here are summarized from the 2022 statements. Full reports are available at habitatcfc.org or upon request from our office.

engaging youth

Youth United is the youth division of Habitat CFC. Students ages 12 to 18 from different backgrounds, schools, and organizations in Fairfield County come together to develop leadership skills, engage in positive service activities, and make friends in the broader community.

Youth United coordinates build days, fundraisers, and other activities so that every student can contribute to Habitat CFC's mission of providing decent and affordable housing in Coastal Fairfield County.

Since 2005, Youth United has sponsored six Habitat CFC homes for local families.

In 2022, Youth United members contributed on our build sites and the Habitat CFC ReStore. Youth United held bookcase and birdhouse building projects as well as participating in various fundraisers throughout the year. From car washes to bake sales, the students were able to raise over $10,000 in 2022. Youth United members came together to participate in advocacy sessions to learn more about the Habitat mission and how they can influence housing policies in this area.

engaging women

Women Build is Habitat CFC's program to engage and empower women to help families build safety, stability, and self-reliance through affordable homeownership.

Women Build volunteers participate in Build Days, advocate for affordable housing, and fundraise to help build the next Women Build home.

I just think good housing and good education is key for families and their children to improve themselves.”

Habitat for Humanity is a global, non-profit organization that was founded in 1976 with the purpose of helping low income families build and improve their homes. Currently, Habitat is in 70 countries worldwide, and through its work, more than 39 million people are able to have access to a decent home.

In Coastal Fairfield County, Habitat started in 1985, and to date, it has served more than 1,100 families by building and rehabbing 279 homes. Habitat has provided them with the strength, stability, and self-reliance required to build a better life for them and their families.

We build strength, stability, and self reliance through new, affordable, and energy-efficient homes.

donor spotlight:

MacKenzie Scott Donates $5 million to Habitat CFC

This year, Habitat for Humanity of Coastal Fairfield County, along with Habitat for Humanity International, and 83 U.S. Habitat affiliate organizations, received $436 million in unrestricted giving from American author and philanthropist MacKenzie Scott. Of that, Habitat CFC received a very generous gift of $5 million. This "transformational" grant is the largest one-time gift Habitat CFC has ever received.

"Habitat for Humanity of Coastal Fairfield County is thrilled to receive this truly unprecedented gift from MacKenzie Scott," said George Keith, Habitat CFC Board Chair. "The affordable housing crisis is affecting many families in Coastal Fairfield County. With this gift we will be able to offer more low-income families the opportunity to become homeowners."

Habitat CFC will use the $5 million donation to fund our mission of bringing affordable homeownership into reach for hardworking, low-income families in the community. With a national shortage of affordable homes, housing prices locally and nationally have skyrocketed since the beginning of the pandemic. As the price of acquiring land in our area keeps going up, the Habitat CFC Board has determined that we will utilize the funds to acquire property so that we can continue to offer affordable housing homeownership options to more families in Coastal Fairfield County.

"When I received the call about this gift, I was overwhelmed with emotion and cried tears of joy," said Carolyn Vermont, Habitat CFC CEO. "This gift will make a huge impact on the lives of the underserved and marginalized communities in Coastal Fairfield County, especially our Bridgeport, CT community. Thank you, MacKenzie Scott!"
